LAWPRO QUICK GUIDE

What Firm Managers Need To Know

When does the civil litigation levy or real estate levy apply?

What to do:

See our civil litigation transaction levy chart and real estate translation levy chart to find out if a levy applies.

Is a new call joining your firm? Is a lawyer re-entering private practice joining your firm?

What to do:

These lawyers should go to lawpro.ca and complete an application form in My LAWPRO. If they don't already have an account, they can register online, then go to the file online tab and complete the form.

Is a lawyer joining your firm from another law firm?

What to do:

Send an email to service@lawpro.ca with the following information:

- Lawyer's name and Law Society number
- First date of employment with your firm
- New/preferred contact information: mail, email, phone, fax
- Payment instructions, if applicable (e.g. please add this lawyer to the current premium payment authorization instructions for our firm).
- Date of departure from former firm, if available.

Is a lawyer leaving your firm?

What to do:

Send an email to service@lawpro.ca with the following information:

- Lawyer's name and Law Society number
- Last date of employment with your firm
- Lawyer's forwarding contact information
- Any desired billing instructions for premium payments (e.g. please cancel the pre-authorized payment instructions for this lawyer and provide a pro-rated refund if applicable, or advise no refund required).

Is a lawyer taking a temporary leave of absence but remaining a member of your firm?

What to do:

At least 30 days before, the lawyer should visit lawpro.ca and file an application for exemption in My LAWPRO. In the absence of this completed form, coverage and premiums will remain in place unabated.

Is a lawyer retiring or otherwise leaving private practice in Ontario?

What to do:

At least 30 days before, the lawyer should visit lawpro.ca to file an application for exemption in My LAWPRO. Consider increasing Run-Off coverage. There is a 60 day waiting period from the date of application for the increased coverage to come into effect.
